Leopol, September 26.

THe Bridge of Boats over the Nieſter near Choczin, which was broken by the late overflowings of the Rivers occaſioned by the great Rains, being repaired, it's believed the King of Poland will in two or three days paſs it with his Army, ſo enter into Moldavia and Vanchia, his Majeſty intending afterwards, as is ſaid, to march towards Bialogrod, and to poſſeſs himſelf of that and other places on that ſide, thereby to hinder the Tartars from making Incurſions into Podolia and the Ukrain, which they always do when the Forces of the Crown are employed elſewhere. The Ottoman Army continues encamped at Czecora, from whence we are told, a conſiderable detachement hath been ſent to joyn the Seraſquier of Hungary, in order to the relief of Buda, the Turks thinking themſelves ſtrong enough on this ſide to act defenſively, eſpecially ſeeing the Seaſon is ſo far advanced that no great Enterprize can be undertaken. Caminiec is ſo cloſely blocked up, that the Gariſon hath not been able to make any Incurſions of late. An Envoy arrived in the Camp from Moſcovy, who it is ſaid has among other things aſſured the King of Poland, that the Czar has given leave to the Coſſacks, ſubject to them, to joyn with the Forces under the Protection of this Crown againſt the Turks.

Madrid, Septemb. 28. The Marquis de Cogolludo, Son of the Duke de Medina Celi is gone to take Poſſeſſion of his Command of General of the Gallies of Naples. The King has named the Marquis de Leganez, General of the Horſe in Catalonia, to ſucceed the Duke de Bournonville in the Government of that Country. We have an account from Cadiz, that five Spaniſh Men of War are ſailed from thence to the Weſtward under the command of Don Matheo de la Hoz. The Spaniſh Gallies with thoſe of Genoua are arrived at Port Mahon, where they will continue till they receive farther Orders from hence. Signior Foſcarini, Ambaſſador from the Republick of Venice, had an Audience of the King the 22 inſtant upon the Affairs of the preſent conjuncture. An Expreſs was ſent from hence the laſt week to Gadiz to haſten the departure of the Galeons.

Rome, September 30. The laſt week arrived here an Extraordinary Courier from Genoua, with Letters to Cardinal Spinola, who thereupon had an Audience of the Pope, and as we are told, acquainted him with the Reſolution the Senate have taken to deſire his Mediation for the compoſing Matters between his Moſt Chriſtian Majeſty and the Republick; with which the Pope being very well pleaſed, the Cardinal ſent back the Courier to give the Senate an account thereof. On Wednesday laſt the Ambaſſador of Malta had an Audience of the Pope to communicate to him the Orders that have been ſent to the Gallies of Malta to remain with the Venetian Fleet all the next Month; and withal to know of his Holineſs what directions he has given concerning the return of his Gallies, and when he [illegible] ſhall Winter. Yeſterday arrived here an Expreſs from Piſa, with advice, that the Gallies of Tuſcany were arrived there, and that they had by them an account that the Venetian Troops had made a deſcent near Dragomeſtro, that they had plundered and burnt two great Towns, and many Bourgs and Villages; that 2000 Greeks had taken Arms and joyned the Venetians; and that they had defeated a body of Turks that endeavoured to oppoſe them, had killed a great number of them, and taken many Priſoners; And that the Chriſtians were gone to beſiege Preveſa.

Turin, October 7. The Duke of Savoy is ſtill at his Camp between Ceva and Pieſſo, but we are told that the Troops will now in few days be ſent back to their ſeveral Gariſons. Yeſterday arrived here an Expreſs from Paris with Letters for the French Ambaſſador at Rome, which were ſent forward by another Meſſenger from hence, for that it was believed the Genoneſes would not let the French Courier paſs through their Territories. The Abbot d'Eſtrades, Envoy Extraordinary at this Court from his Moſt Chriſtian Majeſty, is preparing for his departure from hence, but we do not yet hear who will be ſent hither in his place. This week paſſed by this place a French Regiment of Horſe, who came from Piguerol, and marched to Caſal to relieve a Regiment there, which has orders to return to France.

Milan, October 3. The Count de Melgar our Governor, hath given out this laſt week ſeveral Commiſſions for the raiſing of Men; and hath diſpatched an Officer to haſten the Levy that's making of 2000 Swiſſers for the Service of this Country. The Troops of this State are encamped at Voghera, from whence 2000 Men have been ſent to Genoua, and our Governor hath aſſured that Republick of a greater aſſiſtance in caſe they ſhall need of it.

Dantzicke, October 16. There are Letters from Warſaw which ſay they had advice, that the King of Poland was upon his march to paſs the Nieſter. The ſame Letters give likewiſe an account of the defeat of 3000 Tartars by the Coſſacks. From Moſcovy they write, that that Court cannot be prevailed with to enter into the League againſt the Turks.

Berlin, October 14. This week arrived here Major General Schakenbourg in the Quality of Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Denmark.
